CELEBRATE LOVE AND PROSPERITY AT QUAYSIDE ISLE

Singapore, 15 January 2014 – Welcome the Year of the Horse and celebrate Valentine’s Day with that special someone at Quayside Isle, one of Singapore’s most scenic and exclusive locations, with a host of specially crafted delectable gastronomic treats.

USHERING IN THE YEAR OF THE HORSE

For those seeking an international take on the Lunar New Year feast, visit Brussels Sprouts – Belgian Beer & Mussels for an exclusively created “Belgian” Yu Sheng, featuring a delightful combination of ingredients such as beetroot, mussel crackers and rollmops, with apple butter and raspberry vinegar. In commemoration of the Year of the Horse, two special pizzas have been added to Picotin Express’ mouth-watering menu. Named Guoxia and Lijiang, these pizzas have been meaningfully named after Chinese horse breeds. The Guoxia pizza is made with roast duck, plum sauce and water chestnuts, while the Lijiang pizza is topped with Chinese sausage and spring onions.

For those who prefer traditional Chinese cuisine this Lunar New Year, Blue Lotus – Chinese Eating House is the eatery of your choice. Spoil yourself and your family or guests with a variety of classic oriental delights from one of four special set menus starting from S$88++ per person. Named Happiness, Fortune, Longevity and Prosperity, each menu features its own assortment of unique, delectable offerings such as Claypot Aubergine with Sea Cucumber and Spicy Minced Pork Sauce; Foie Gras and Wagyu beef “Sang Choy Bao”; Giant King Prawns with Five Spice Garlic and Basil Leaves; and Braised Boston Lobster with Leek and Shallots in Superior Stock. Be it a large group gathering or a cosy reunion, Blue Lotus offers the Prosperity menu for 10 guests and onwards, while the other three menus are for a minimum of four pax.

PAMPERING THAT SPECIAL SOMEONE

Set in the heart of Sentosa Cove and along the picturesque waterfront, Quayside Isle makes the perfect intimate setting to impress and remember this Valentine’s Day. For a romantic meal with an Asian touch, visit Brussels Sprouts – Belgian Beer & Mussels. The menu includes

Scallop Dumplings in Tangerine Emulsion; Warm Tea Smoked Salmon, Sesame Seeds Green and Grey Shrimp Lo Mein; Peking-style Duck Breast; and Chocolate and Passion Fruit Lanterns. Picotin Express also offers a special selection of dishes for the occasion. From starters to desserts, each course features an option meant for sharing, such as Rocket Salad with Burrata and Parma ham; Cote De Boeuf; and Trio of Chocolate, making it the perfect choice for a romantic dinner for two.

For a fine dining experience, Saint Pierre is definitely worth a visit. Select from either a four-course (first seating) or seven-course (second seating) meal where you will be pampered with delicate, yet sumptuous dishes such as Miso Braised Wagyu Beef Short Rib with Japanese Coal Grilled Lobster Tail, Asparagus, Parmesan, Truffle Mashed Rate Potato and Wild Mushrooms. The four-course dinner also comes with a complimentary pair of movie tickets to complete your evening. For a memorable dining experience, explore your creative side at Museo with that special someone or a spontaneous group of friends who are up for the artistic challenge to create a masterpiece in 90 minutes. Start your evening with a sumptuous three-course dinner, concoct your own red or white Sangria cocktail and enjoy the rest of the evening with social painting where you can unleash your creativity, let your imagination take over and bring home your masterpieces at the end of the session.

Offering a laid back dining experience, Quayside Fish Bar & Bistro is ideal for a casual date night, with its themed menu in celebration of love and courtship. Each dish has been uniquely named, such as Love at First Sight (Homemade Lobster Tofu with Foie Gras Quince) and First Dance (Wrapped Crispy Potato Cod Bouillabaisse). Couples may choose from either a three or four-course dinner, which includes a glass of champagne, a choice of coffee or tea, petit fours, and with complimentary roses for the first 20 couples. The three-course and four-course menu will be available at $95++ per person and $105++ per person respectively.
